NEWS FROM FOREIGN LANDS

The Freshest Gleanings from the Old World.

The Responsibility of the War.

VIENNA, July 1.—Several evening journals state that Turkey will issue a circular to the great powers throwing the entire responsibility of the war upon Servia, and declaring Prince Milan a rebel because he seceded from the union of vassals. The following is an extract from the Servian manifesto:

"Servia has done nothing whatever to hinder the work of pacification, whilst Turkey surrounded Servia with a belt of iron. It is impossible to remain longer within the bounds of moderation, and the Porte is responsible for any eventual bloodshed. The Montenegrins will be on our side, and it will not be long before Herzegovinians, Bosnians, Bulgarians and Greeks will co-operate with us."

The manifesto concludes by exhorting the troops to respect the frontier of Austria, which has a claim upon their gratitude because of the benevolent protection extended to their Herzegovinian brethren.

The Imperial Meeting.

EMS, July 1.—Emperor William leaves here to visit the Czar at Jugenheim to-morrow.

The Spanish Army.

MADRID, July 1.—The Senate has voted a bill fixing the army at one hundred thousand men.

Swindlers Sentenced

LONDON, July 1.—In the case against the Eupion Gas Company, the defendants, Aspinall and Knocker, were sentenced to-day to twelve and Muir and Whyte to two months' imprisonment. Muir was the projector of the company, and Knocker manager of the Midland Bank, which advanced money, and Whyte introduced these persons to Aspinall, who managed the financiering of the company. The indictment was for conspiring to obtain by false pretenses a settling day and quotation on the Stock Exchange.

Walking Match.

LONDON, July 1.—Vaughan accepts the challenge of O'Leary for a twenty-four hours' walking match, but declines a six days' match, never having had an opportunity of testing his capabilities to that extent. He prefers to walk in England.

Montenegro's Neutrality.

BERLIN, July 1.—The Prince of Montenegro has solemnly engaged to remain neutral.

Bismarck Watching Von Arnim.

Count Von Arnim has arrived at Carlsbad, closely watched by Prussian detectives.

French Imperial Pensioners

PARIS, July 1.—The Budget committee has suppressed the pensions of invalid functionaries of the Empire.

A Poet's Libel Suit.

LONDON, July 1.—Robert Buchanan, the poet, having sued the proprietor of the Examiner, claiming damages in $25,000 for alleged libels contained in reviews and in letters of Algernon Swinburn, elicited by Buchanan's criticism of Swineburn and other poets under the designation of the "Fleshly School," the jury awarded Buchanan $750 damages.

Prince Milan's Proclamation.

VIENNA, July 1.—Prince Milan, in his proclamation, says: "Turkey has provoked war by not satisfying Bosnia and by threatening Servia. We enter Bosnia in the cause of humanity and nationality, and to re-establish peace without offending Turkey's integrity." The proclamation mentions Austria thankfully for her efforts to protect Christians.

Servia in a State of Siege.

BELGRADE, July 2.—The war manifesto of Prince Milan was promulgated on Saturday, and a state of siege was proclaimed throughout Servia. The manifesto says: "The Prince, animated by ideas of moderation, offered to send an envoy to come to an understanding. The Porte ignored the conciliatory offer, and continued to send fresh troops. It is necessary to enter the insurgent country in order to pacify it, organize principles of justice and legality, without destruction of religion, and without failing to respect the integrity of the Ottoman Empire."

New Officials for Bosnia.

VIENNA, July 2.—Advices from Belgrade state that a proclamation will shortly be issued informing Bosnians of the approaching appointment of new officials throughout the country in the name of Prince Milan. A special envoy goes to Athens from Belgrade shortly.

Turks Concentrating.

The Turkish army, which has hitherto been stationed at Gatzko, is now concentrated at Mostar.

Turkish Outrages.

LONDON, July 3.—A dispatch to the Daily News from Belgrade says it is reported that the Pasha in command at Widdin has seized five hundred of principal inhabitants and threatens to execute them if that district rises. It is said that the Turks are hanging teachers and professors everywhere. It is reported that a priest has been crucified near Philippolis.

CENTENNIAL CELEBRATION.

A Grand Demonstration in Independence Hall and Square in Philadelphia on Saturday by Authors.

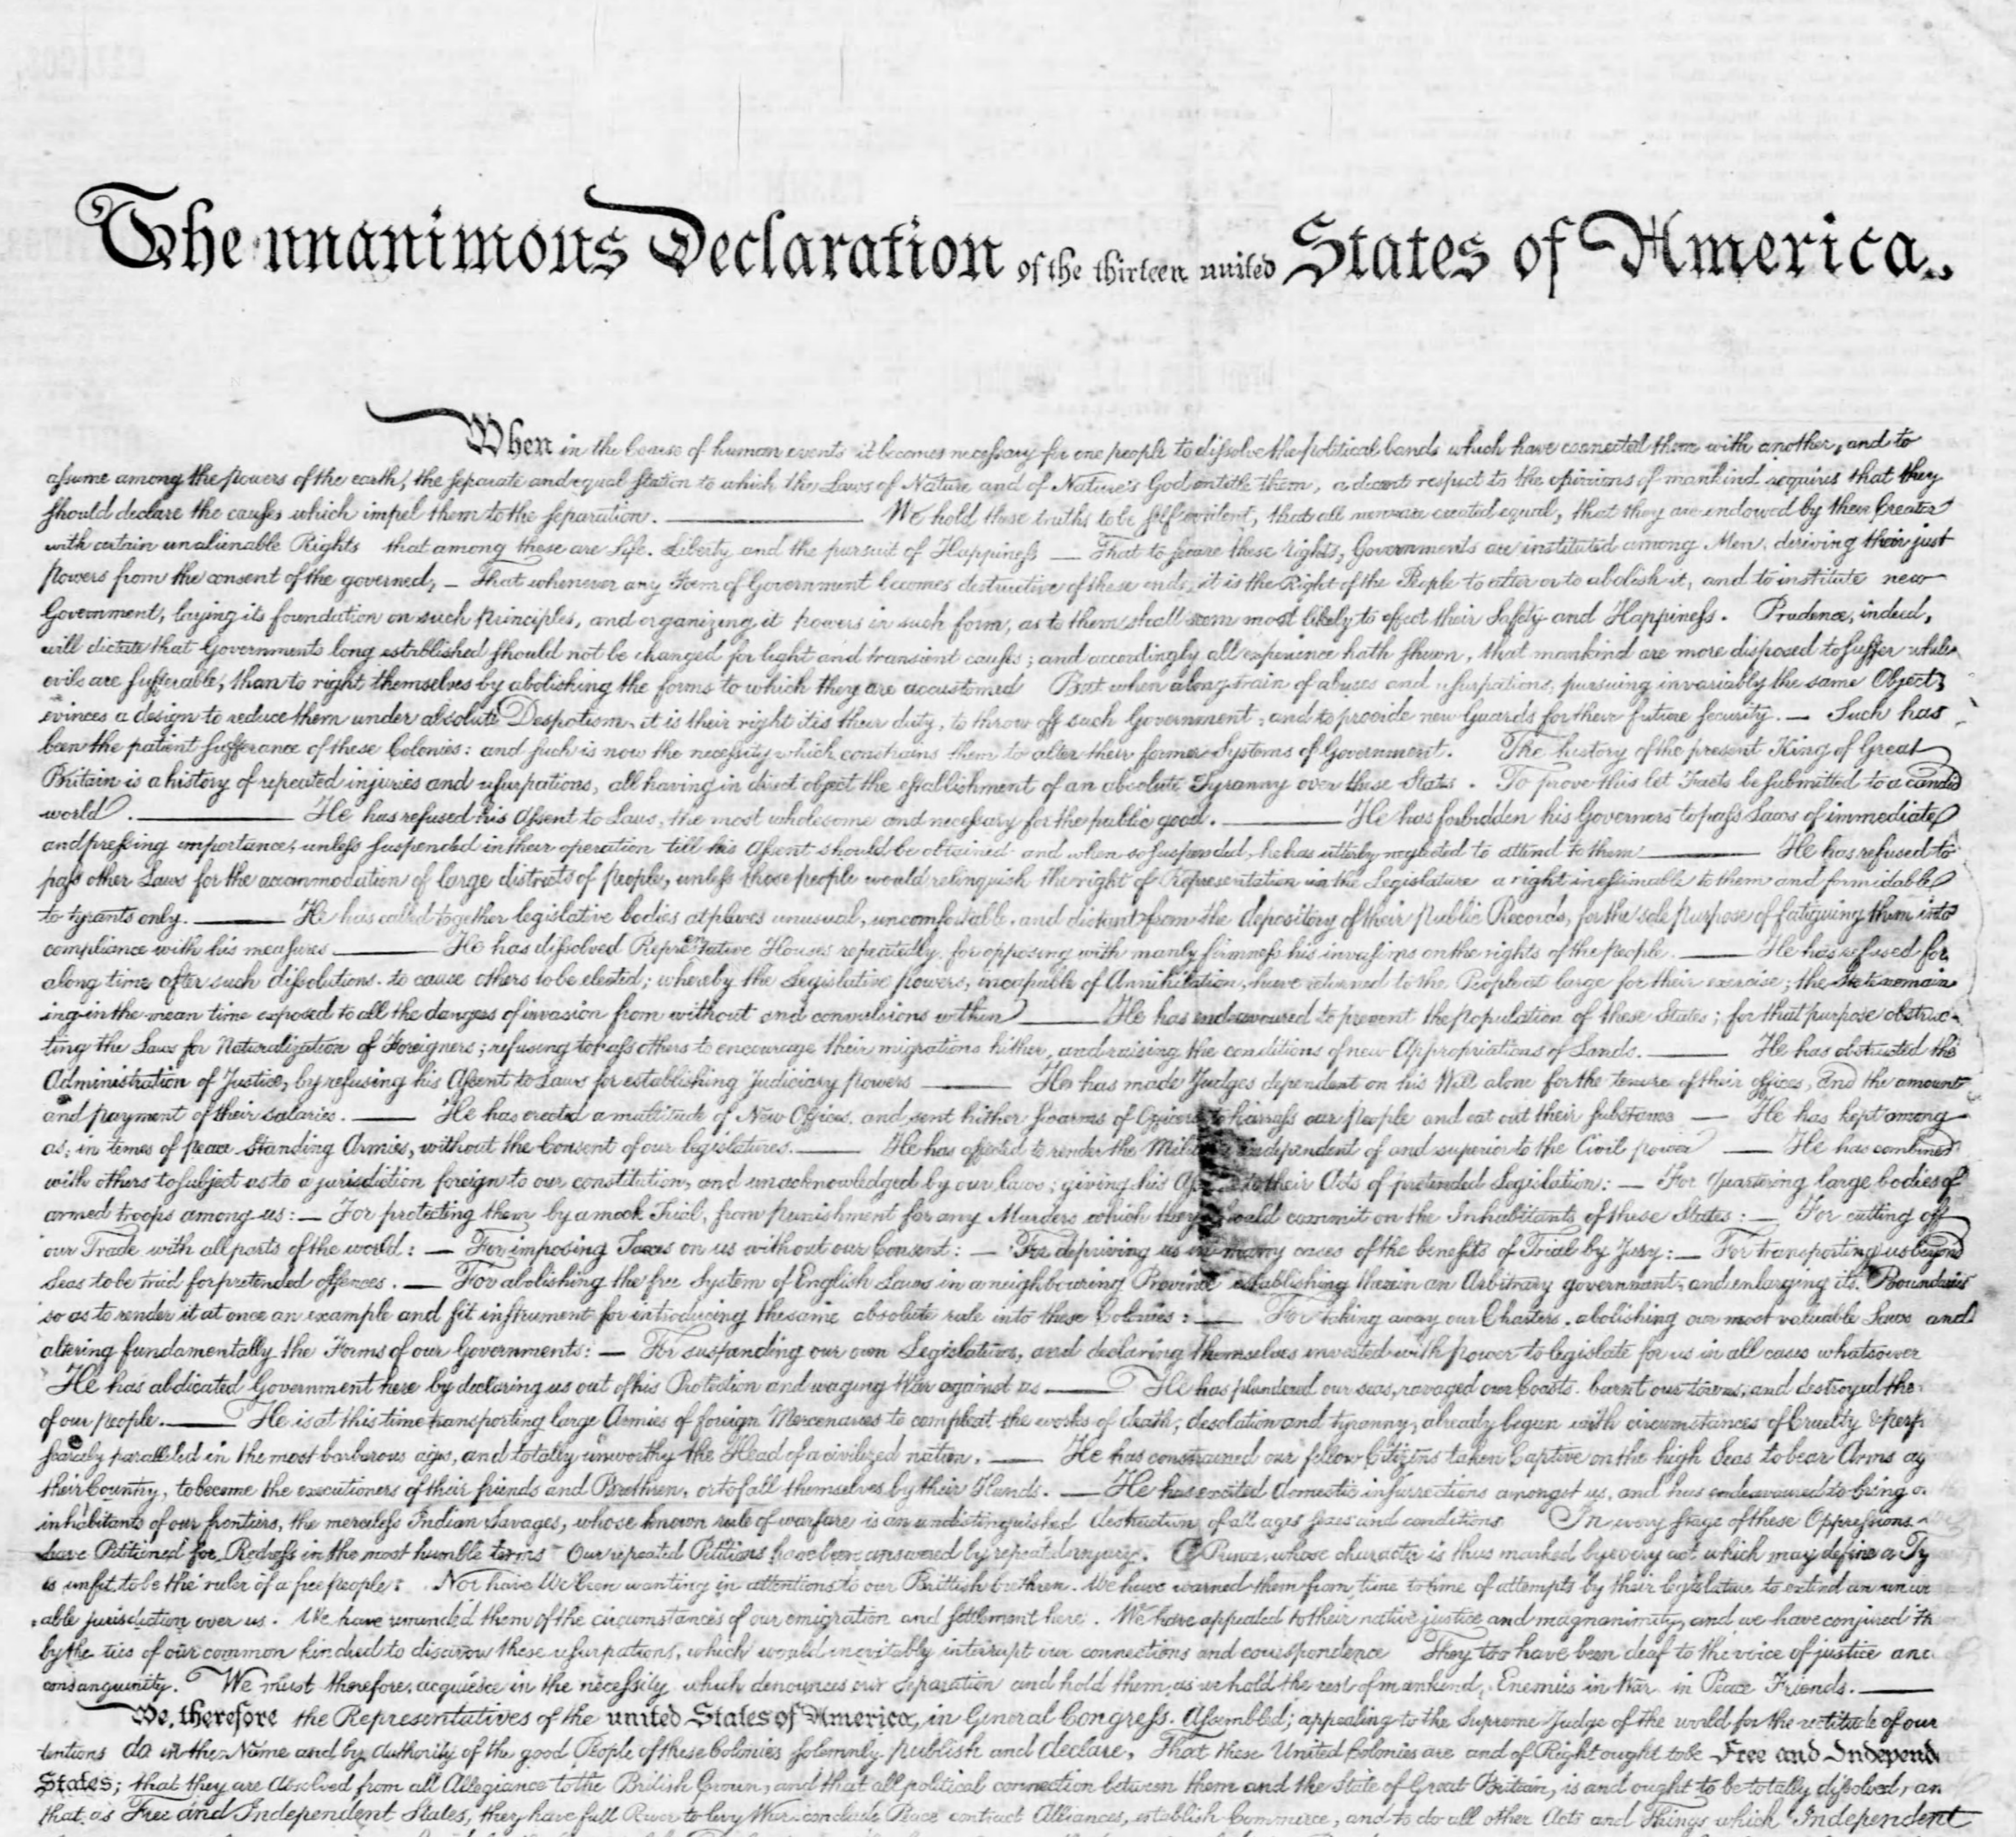
PHILADELPHIA, July 1.—The Centennial July celebration was commenced to-day by a grand demonstration in Independence Hall and Independence Square. The opening exercises of the day were held in Independence Hall, commencing at half-past eleven o'clock, under the direction of the Committee on Restoration. At the hour named about one hundred and thirty authors and prominent literary gentlemen assembled in the historic room, each depositing a short biographical sketch of one of the signers or other prominent revolutionary patriots. The gentlemen invited to participate in this interesting affair had come together in the museum immediately opposite Independence Hall at 11 o'clock. There they were received by the ladies of the committee in charge of the museum, and were thence escorted to the hall, were they were welcomed by His Honor, Mayor Stokeley, in a short and appropriate address. The assemblage was next addressed by Col. Frank M. Etting, Chairman of the Committee on Restoration of Independence Hall. Prayer was offered by Rev. Wm. White Bronson. At the conclusion of Rev. Mr. Bronson's prayer Whittier's Centennial Hymn, as sung on the opening of the Centennial Exhibition on May 10, was sung by a chorus of fifty voices. The names of the authors were then called, when each one stepped to the table and deposited his sketch, after which the assemblage were escorted to seats on the platform in the square. Among the authors contributing sketches were ex-Gov. John A. Dix, Thomas W. Higginson, John Estenbrook, Benson J. Lossing, Robert C. Winthrop, John W. Forney and Charles Francis Adams.

The exercises in Independence Square commenced at 12:30. The platform was crowded with invited guests and the square in front of the platform with a very large audience. The exercises opened with the performance of Helfrick's "Central Triumphant March," by the military band of the Central Musical Association.

John Wilson Wallace, Esq., President of the Historical Society of Pennsylvania, was then introduced by Mayor Stokeley as the presiding officer of the occasion. Mr. Wallace, on taking the chair, delivered a brief address. A chorus of four hundred voices next sang Whittier's Centennial Hymn. The President then introduced to the audience Wm. V. McKean, Esq., editor of the Public Ledger, who proceeded to deliver a lengthy address, in which he reviewed elaborately the great historical event in commemoration of which the ceremonies of to-day were held. After music by the band Hon. Leverett Salstonstall, of Massachusetts, addressed the audience. Addresses were also delivered by Gov. Henry Lippitt, of Rhode Island, Gen. DePeyster, President of the New York Historical Society, and Hon. Benjamin Harris Brewster. Three new Centennial odes were sung by the chorus. The remainder of the programme embraced addresses by Congressman L. Q. C. Lamar, of Mississippi, Senator John B. Gordon, of Georgia, General Winfield S. Hancock and Hon. Joel Parker, ex-Governor of New Jersey. The weather to-day was delightful.

Long Branch Races.

LONG BRANCH, July 1.—The races to-day began with fair weather and a fast track. The first race was for a trial purse, one mile, and it was won by Metal, Leander second, Spendrift third, Milton last; time 1:47. The second race was for a purse of five hundred dollars, all ages, mile heats. The first heat was won by Meco, James A second, Egypt third; time 1:45½. The Weasel did not go the course, refusing the fifth jump; time 5:57.



IN CONGRESS, July 4, 1776

The unanimous Declaration of the thirteen united States of America.

When in the Courſe of human events it becomes neceſsary for one people to diſsolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to aſsume among the powers of the earth, the ſeparate and equal ſtation to which the Laws of Nature and of Nature's God entitle them, a decent reſpect to the opinions of mankind requires that they ſhould declare the cauſes which impel them to the ſeparation. —— We hold theſe truths to be ſelf-evident, that all men are created equal, that they are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable Rights, that among theſe are Life, Liberty and the purſuit of Happineſs. — That to ſecure theſe rights, Governments are inſtituted among Men, deriving their juſt powers from the conſent of the governed, — That whenever any Form of Government becomes deſtructive of theſe ends, it is the Right of the People to alter or to aboliſh it, and to inſtitute new Government, laying its foundation on ſuch principles and organizing its powers in ſuch form, as to them ſhall ſeem moſt likely to effect their Safety and Happineſs. Prudence, indeed, will dictate that Governments long eſtabliſhed ſhould not be changed for light and tranſient cauſes; and accordingly all experience hath ſhewn, that mankind are more diſposed to ſuffer, while evils are ſufferable, than to right themſelves by aboliſhing the forms to which they are accuſtomed. But when a long train of abuſes and uſurpations, purſuing invariably the ſame Object evinces a deſign to reduce them under abſolute Deſpotiſm, it is their right, it is their duty, to throw off ſuch Government, and to provide new Guards for their future ſecurity. — Such has been the patient ſufferance of theſe Colonies; and ſuch is now the neceſsity which conſtrains them to alter their former Syſtems of Government. The hiſtory of the preſent King of Great Britain is a hiſtory of repeated injuries and uſurpations, all having in direct object the eſtabliſhment of an abſolute Tyranny over theſe States. To prove this, let Facts be ſubmitted to a candid world. —— He has refuſed his Aſsent to Laws, the moſt wholeſome and neceſsary for the public good. —— He has forbidden his Governors to paſs Laws of immediate and preſsing importance, unleſs ſuſpended in their operation till his Aſsent ſhould be obtained; and when ſo ſuſpended, he has utterly neglected to attend to them. —— He has refuſed to paſs other Laws for the accommodation of large diſtricts of people, unleſs thoſe people would relinquiſh the right of Repreſentation in the Legiſlature, a right ineſtimable to them and formidable to tyrants only. —— He has called together legiſlative bodies at places unuſual, uncomfortable, and diſtant from the depoſitory of their public Records, for the ſole purpoſe of fatiguing them into compliance with his meaſures. —— He has diſsolved Repreſentative Houſes repeatedly, for oppoſing with manly firmneſs his invaſions on the rights of the people. —— He has refuſed for a long time, after ſuch diſsolutions, to cauſe others to be elected; whereby the Legiſlative powers, incapable of Annihilation, have returned to the People at large for their exerciſe; the State remaining in the mean time expoſed to all the dangers of invaſion from without, and convulſions within. —— He has endeavoured to prevent the population of theſe States; for that purpoſe obſtructing the Laws for Naturalization of Foreigners; refuſing to paſs others to encourage their migrations hither, and raiſing the conditions of new Appropriations of Lands. —— He has obſtructed the Adminiſtration of Juſtice, by refuſing his Aſsent to Laws for eſtabliſhing Judiciary powers. —— He has made Judges dependent on his Will alone, for the tenure of their offices, and the amount and payment of their ſalaries. —— He has erected a multitude of New Offices, and ſent hither ſwarms of Officers to harraſs our people, and eat out their ſubſtance. — He has kept among us, in times of peace, Standing Armies without the Conſent of our legiſlatures. —— He has affected to render the Military independent of and ſuperior to the Civil power. —— He has combined with others to ſubject us to a juriſdiction foreign to our conſtitution, and unacknowledged by our laws; giving his Aſsent to their Acts of pretended Legiſlation: — For Quartering large bodies of armed troops among us: — For protecting them, by a mock Trial, from puniſhment for any Murders which they ſhould commit on the Inhabitants of theſe States: — For cutting off our Trade with all parts of the world: — For impoſing Taxes on us without our Conſent: — For depriving us in many caſes, of the benefits of Trial by Jury: — For tranſporting us beyond Seas to be tried for pretended offences: — For aboliſhing the free Syſtem of Engliſh Laws in a neighbouring Province, eſtabliſhing therein an Arbitrary government, and enlarging its Boundaries ſo as to render it at once an example and fit inſtrument for introducing the ſame abſolute rule into theſe Colonies: — For taking away our Charters, aboliſhing our moſt valuable Laws, and altering fundamentally the Forms of our Governments: — For ſuſpending our own Legiſlatures, and declaring themſelves inveſted with power to legiſlate for us in all caſes whatſoever. He has abdicated Government here, by declaring us out of his Protection and waging War againſt us. —— He has plundered our ſeas, ravaged our Coaſts, burnt our towns, and deſtroyed the lives of our people. —— He is at this time tranſporting large Armies of foreign Mercenaries to compleat the works of death, deſolation and tyranny, already begun with circumſtances of Cruelty & perfidy ſcarcely paralleled in the moſt barbarous ages, and totally unworthy the Head of a civilized nation. —— He has conſtrained our fellow Citizens taken Captive on the high Seas to bear Arms againſt their Country, to become the executioners of their friends and Brethren, or to fall themſelves by their Hands. —— He has excited domeſtic inſurrections amongſt us, and has endeavoured to bring on the inhabitants of our frontiers, the merciless Indian Savages, whoſe known rule of warfare, is an undiſtinguiſhed deſtruction of all ages, ſexes and conditions. In every ſtage of theſe Oppreſsions We have Petitioned for Redreſs in the moſt humble terms: Our repeated Petitions have been anſwered by repeated injury. A Prince, whoſe character is thus marked by every act which may define a Tyrant, is unfit to be the ruler of a free people. Nor have We been wanting in attentions to our Brittiſh brethren. We have warned them from time to time of attempts by their legiſlature to extend an unwarrantable juriſdiction over us. We have reminded them of the circumſtances of our emigration and ſettlement here. We have appealed to their native juſtice and magnanimity, and we have conjured them by the ties of our common kindred to diſavow theſe uſurpations, which, would inevitably interrupt our connections and correſpondence. They too have been deaf to the voice of juſtice and of conſanguinity. We muſt, therefore, acquieſce in the neceſsity, which denounces our Separation, and hold them, as we hold the reſt of mankind, Enemies in War, in Peace Friends. ——

We, therefore, the Repreſentatives of the united States of America, in General Congreſs, Aſsembled, appealing to the Supreme Judge of the world for the rectitude of our intentions, do, in the Name, and by Authority of the good People of theſe Colonies, ſolemnly publiſh and declare, That theſe United Colonies are, and of Right ought to be Free and Independent States; that they are Abſolved from all Allegiance to the Britiſh Crown, and that all political connection between them and the State of Great Britain, is and ought to be totally diſsolved; and that as Free and Independent States, they have full Power to levy War, conclude Peace, contract Alliances, eſtabliſh Commerce, and to do all other Acts and Things which Independent States may of right do. —— And for the ſupport of this Declaration, with a firm reliance on the protection of divine Providence, we mutually pledge to each other our Lives, our Fortunes and our ſacred Honor.

FORTY-FOURTH CONGRESS.

FIRST SESSION.

WASHINGTON, July 1, 1876.

SENATE.

The Silver Bill.

Mr. SHERMAN, from the Committee on Finance, reported back the House joint resolution for the issue of silver coin, and recommended that the Senate non-concur in the House amendments to the Senate amendments and ask for a committee of conference. So ordered.

Mr. Pinchback's Pay.

Mr. MITCHELL called for the regular order, the resolution to pay P. B. S. Pinchback, late contestant for a seat in the Senate from Louisiana, the compensation and mileage of a Senator from March 4th, 1873, until the termination of the contest by the Senate.

Appropriations.

Pending the discussion the morning hour expired, and Mr. WINDOM called up the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill.

Mr. WINDOM, from the conference committee on the Indian Appropriation bill, reported that the committee had been unable to agree, and moved that a new committee be appointed. The ground of disagreement was the section transferring the Indian Bureau to the War Department. The motion to appoint a new committee was agreed to.

The Senate then considered the Sundry Civil Appropriation bill, and rejected the pending amendment continuing the appropriation of $8,000 for expenses of a United States Commissioner to the International Prison Congress.

Mr. LOGAN submitted an amendment appropriating $5,000 for the construction of a signal light on the crib in Lake Michigan in front of Chicago. Agreed to.

A number of amendments were submitted by Mr. WILSON and agreed to.

The Committee on Appropriations reported an amendment, which was agreed to, to strike out of the House bill a proviso that the maximum rate of compensation allowed United States Marshals from and after July 1st, 1876, shall not exceed $5,000 a year, etc.

A number of amendments were agreed to, including one for printing and distributing agricultural reports, when the bill was read the third time and passed.

Adjourned.

HOUSE.

River Commerce.

Mr. KEHR, from the Committee on Commerce, reported back the Senate bill exempting vessels engaged in navigating the Mississippi river and its tributaries above New Orleans from entries and clearances. Passed.

The Appropriation Bills.

Mr. RANDALL reported that the conferees on the Legislative Appropriation bill had been unable to agree, and asked for another conference. The difference was in regard to the second section, which provides for the salaries of employes of the Government. The money difference between the two Houses on this bill was $3,700,000.

After a long discussion of a political nature the report was agreed to, and a new conference committee appointed.

Mr. SHELYE offered a resolution declaring it the sense of the House that conference committees on appropriation bills should seek an agreement in the first place on matters conforming to existing law, and should leave the matter of new legislation for secondary consideration. Withdrawn.

The Nation's One Hundredth Birthday.

The joint resolution providing that the two Houses of Congress meet in joint convention at Independence Hall, Philadelphia, on the 4th of July, for the purpose of passing appropriate resolutions commemorative of the great event which in that hall one hundred years ago brought this nation into being, passed without division.

Adjourned.

Louisiana Republican State Convention.

NEW ORLEANS, July 1.—The fifth day's session of the Republican State Convention succeeded finally in permanently organizing, with P. B. S. Pinchback as permanent Chairman. After adopting a platform the Convention adjourned to Monday, when balloting for the nomination of State officers will be first in order. Pinchback has been elected Chairman of the State Central Committee, vice Packard.

THE NATIONAL TREASURY.

Business Almost Suspended for the Want of Proper Officers—The Acceptance of Treasurer New's Resignation Amended.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—A very remarkable condition of affairs exists at the Treasury Department to-day. There is no Secretary of the Treasury nor Assistant Treasurer, and the cash room has been closed, no drafts having been paid since noon. Cameron it is found, cannot legally assume the duties of Secretary, the ten days in which an Acting Secretary may be in charge having expired, for the reason that Mr. Conant, since the resignation of Bristow, ten days ago, has been filling all the duties of the office, and the law provides no further for an acting appointment. Wyman has his bonds in every respect regular and complete, except that they require the approval of the Secretary of the Treasury. As there is no such officer he cannot qualify. Gilfillan, the newly appointed Assistant Treasurer, has not yet received his commission. So just at this hour there is no officer in the department. Mr. New, who has not yet turned over the moneys of the Government to his successor, has assumed the responsibility of paying warrants issued yesterday against all other payments. Mr. Cameron, Judge Taft and Assistant Secretary Taft have been in consultation with the President. It is thought Morrill will either qualify as Secretary to-day or a new nomination will be sent to the Senate.

Later.—The difficulty in the Treasury Department has been remedied by the amendment of the President's acceptance of the resignation of Treasurer New, so that the resignation is not accepted until after the appointment and qualification of his successor, Mr. Wyman not having qualified because there is no Secretary to approve his bond. Mr. New continues in the office. The cash room has therefore been reopened, and business proceeds as usual. The condition of things creates great excitement at the department and for a time there seemed to be absolute confusion. The alteration of the President's acceptance of Mr. New's resignation was made under a decision of the First Comptroller, who stated that such course would relieve the irregular aspect of affairs.

A Vacant Office.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The office of Chief of Revenue Agents, made vacant by the removal of Yaryan, will not be filled. The duties of the position will be performed by the Chief Clerk and Deputy Commissioner as before Yaryan's appointment.

THE SUNDAY QUESTION.

The German Evangelical Churches of Indianapolis Opposed to Opening the Centennial Exposition on Sunday.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., July 2.—At a mass meeting of all the German Evangelical Churches of this city, held at the Academy of Music to-day, the following was adopted:

WHEREAS, We, the members of the various German churches of the city of Indianapolis, at our Centennial jubilee, know that the blessing of God can rest on our people only in that manner as we submit as a people to the commands of God as they are recorded in Holy Writ, therefore we declare and resolve that the fundamental principles of the Holy Scripture should be the true life of every State; that we consider the Lord's Day as a day ordained by God for rest for every one; that we therefore rejoice that the Centennial Commissioners of the different States have recognized this principle by ordering that the World's Great Exposition in Philadelphia be closed on Sunday, and we hereby express our thanks and acknowledgments for their action.

Fire in St. Johnsbury, Vt.

ST. JOHNSBURY, VT., July 1.—A fire this afternoon broke out in the paper mill next to the Passumphsic river, and sweeping through the village, it destroyed sixty buildings, stores, mills, dwellings, the entire business portion of the village. The loss is estimated at $100,000; about one-third insured. Among the buildings burned were the large paper mill of Bacon, Ranny & Co., and the Universalist church. Many families are homeless.

Fatal Family Quarrel.

TRENTON, N. J., July 1.—Orson A. House, a noted divorce lawyer, quarreled with his stepson at their residence, near here, last evening. The wife interfered to save the boy, when House beat and kicked her, threatening to shoot the boy if she interfered. Mrs. House broke away, and getting a revolver, shot her husband dead, as he was, as she supposed, about to shoot the boy.

Another Rumored Resignation.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—A report has been renewed to-day that Commissioner Pratt would soon tender his resignation. This grows out of the fact that the Commissioner was very complimentary to Yaryan in accepting his resignation. Some of the friends of the Commissioner were apprehensive that the President would regard that as disrespectful to him.

The Postoffice Appropriation Bill.

WASHINGTON, July 1.—The Committee of Conference on the Postoffice Appropriation bill has agreed upon a report. They compromise on the rates of compensation to postmasters. The pay for railroad transportation is reduced ten per cent. below the present rate, and a commission is provided to take this subject into consideration and report at the next session. Third class mail matter, transient newspapers, magazines, pamphlets, books, and all printed matter, except circulars, are to pay one cent for every two ounces.

A Lively Race.

On yesterday morning about 3 o'clock the back window of Joe Welsh's saloon, No. 2 Market street, was jimmied open, and $8 in money and a lot of cigars taken. Officer Teeters came along shortly after, and noticed two suspicious looking men, and started after them. They ran in opposite directions, one going toward the river. The officer followed the latter, who jumped into a skiff and rowed out. The officer did the same. The man rowed back to the wharf, jumped out and pushed Teeters' skiff out. He then ran up in the direction of Smithfield street bridge, where Officer Bottler caught him. On being taken to the Station house the money was found upon him. He was locked up for a trial.

THEIR COUNTRYMEN.

The Swiss Looking After the Allegheny Murderers—Alleged Bad Treatment of Thomann

On last Friday evening the Swiss residents of Allegheny City held a meeting for the purpose of taking action in the matter of offering a reward for the apprehension of the men who murdered their countryman Coleman, and injured Thomann, on Federal street, early last Wednesday morning. They appointed a committee to visit the County Commissioners, and ascertain if they would agree to offer a reward for the purpose named. The visit was made on Saturday, but the Commissioners declined to accede to the request, giving as a reason therefor that it was the duty of the Mayor and Councils of Allegheny to offer such a reward. They instructed the committee, however, to return in case Allegheny City neglects to do its duty, when the county will, if requested by the Mayor and Chief of Allegheny, take some action toward offering an inducement. These facts were reported to a second meeting of the Swiss held on Saturday evening. They decided to submit the case to the authorities of Allegheny. Another meeting will be held some time this week of both Germans and Swiss when, if Allegheny continues inactive, the parties interested will offer a reward and adopt resolutions pertinent to the matter.

It is said that Thomann was at first sadly neglected at Mercy Hospital; that his wounds were permitted to go unattended to until they had filled with worms, and that no physician was called in to see him until his friends at their own expense procured the services of Dr. John Dickson, who is now waiting upon him. The reason assigned for this neglect is that the resident physician of the hospital was absent, and that no expense could be incurred in summoning another. We do not vouch for the truth of this rumor, and indeed are rather inclined to disbelieve it, for the reputation of Mercy Hospital is that it takes the very best care of all who are placed within its walls.

PYROTECHNICAL.

A Premature Display of Fire Works—Two Fires in One Establishment.

A few minutes past ten o'clock Saturday night a fire occurred in the rear of No. 332 Liberty street, which was occupied by A. Pollack as a store room for fire-works. An alarm was sent in from box 31, to which the department promptly responded and succeeded in subduing the flames before any serious damage was done. Mr. N. H. Feltman and family, consisting of his wife and six children, occupied the second story of the building as a dwelling, and being asleep at the time the fire occurred, were nearly suffocated before they could get out of the building. Another display of a more brilliant character was given at the same establishment shortly after 12 o'clock this morning in which what remained of the stock of pyrotechnics from the night previous was completely used up. That portion of the stock not injured by the fire of Saturday night was removed to the front room of the building which was used by Mr. P. as a sales room, and at the time stated above a fire broke out in the room above where this explosive stuff was stored and in a very few minutes the entire stock was destroyed. The building was but slightly damaged, the windows and door being broken and the shelving slightly scorched. It is not known how the fire originated. The loss is estimated at about $1,200.

OF OHIO.

FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM A. WHEELER,
OF NEW YORK.

GOLD closed in New York Saturday at 112⅜

ANOTHER delegation of red men have gone to visit their Great Father. Will their chief carry home a silver-plated rifle?

THREE Governors nominated at Cincinnati and St. Louis,—HAYES, TILDEN and HENDRICKS,—and HAYES is the best of the lot and will win.

As the heated term approaches, destructive storms are reported from various portions of the world, and shocks of an earthquake have been felt in Greece and Southern Europe.

INDICATIONS throughout the West all point to the belief that TILDEN's nomination fell like pall on the Democracy, whilst in the East the rank and file all despise HENDRICKS.

IN the New Hampshire House of Representatives Womens' Rights have received an unequivocal indorsement by the report of a bill from the committee on national affairs authorizing the fair sex to vote at the Presidential elections, with a recommendation that it pass.

MR. BLAINE's health at present writing is considered by his physicians alarming. He is said to be much worse than the public have been led to believe. Every well-wisher of his country will pray for his recovery. The country can ill-afford to lose his valuable services at this time.

ABOUT two million visitors have attended the Exposition up to date, indicating at this rate, a total of eight or nine million visitors during the season. It may run over that as the prevailing impression appears to be that during the months of September and October the greatest rush will occur.

THE detectives of the Treasury Department, having got through with the whisky fraud gentry, have turned their attention to the counterfeiters, and have already succeeded in overhauling quite a large band of this class of professional thieves. Over $75,000 of counterfeit paper has been seized. This is a fortunate discovery, and will doubtless lead to further arrests.

PRINCE MILAN, the commander of the Servian army, has gone to join his forces, "amid cheers from the populace and salutes from the batteries." A declaration of war has been decided upon, and ere many days—perhaps hours—it may be looked for. Turkey retains a position of self-defense, but announces that she is fully prepared for war. It will make small odds to the rest of the world, unless the other nations are drawn into the conflict.

SOMEBODY telegraphed to TILDEN as follows: "The GREELEY household and its friends are all for you." The thought of his name being used to bolster up "SAM TILDEN," whom he so much despised during his lifetime, is enough to make the dead philosopher kick his coffin lid—besides it is a libel on very many supporters of GREELEY, few of whom claiming to be Republican in sentiment, will vote otherwise than for HAYES and WHEELER.

THE Republican ratification meeting at the Opera House on Saturday evening was well attended, and the expression of the speakers and hearers was general in approval of the ticket. There appears to be no dissatisfaction here. Whilst our people almost unanimously preferred Mr. BLAINE as their candidate, all agree that HAYES and WHEELER are unexceptionable for purity and ability. There is no doubt about this county, in November, doing its whole duty.

PETROFF, the expelled member from Philadelphia, has been re-nominated to a seat in the House at Harrisburg. That is the way Philadelphia vindicates the efforts of the Legislature to cleanse itself of corruption, and looks as though the people of that quarter rather preferred professional "roosters" as their Representatives. Now, will Luzerne follow this example and return LYNOTT? If so, it will hardly be worth while for the Legislature to attempt further reformation, as it will prove that the good people are against it. Why not repeal the "Boom Bill" next winter, and vote PETER HERDIC a vote of thanks and good character?

WE spread before our readers this morning as a fitting accompaniment to memories of the "Centennial Fourth" a fac simile of the Declaration of Independence as it was written and signed a century ago. The men who gave us the Declaration have passed away, but their patriotism is celebrated in song and story, the influence of their example still lives and the sentiments to which they gave utterance are as worthy of careful thought and earnest endorsement now as they were in that day when the nation was born. It may seem like an old story, but we commend a fresh reading of the Declaration to every one who loves his country, and would give place to a new inspiration of patriotic enthusiasm.

IT is reported from Havana that the insurrection in Cuba is still troublesome to the Spanish authorities, the movements partaking of raids on the plantations and sugar mills, often resulting in depredations of a violent and destructive character. The yellow fever is making sad havoc among the raw recruits sent over from Spain, whilst the insurgents are fighting in their native climate, and are not nearly so fatally affected. The efforts of Spain in suppressing the rebellion among her subjects in the Antilles, are more on paper than real, and remind one of the Pope's Bull against the comet. For utter imbecility and natural awkwardness Spanish soldiers carry off the palm.

IN our local news columns this morning our readers will find a list of prominent citizens and Republicans who entered their protest against the summary removal of Mr. DAVID REED from the U. S. District Attorneyship. These gentlemen are representative of the great mass of the people, who justly regard a removal where no charges have been preferred as a despotic piece of Ring rule, against which every fair-minded man must protest. The list, as found elsewhere, is one which from the character of the gentlemen named commands the highest respect, and the fact that it was not heeded at Washington, indicates that the ring managers were desperate and determined on slaughter, regardless of consequences. If such remonstrances are not heeded, what justice can the Republicans of Western Pennsylvania expect from ring rule?

TAMMANY AND REFORM.

It is sometimes well to pause and inquire where the movements in political reform, which so urgently demand that we shall accept and support them, originate. Were it not for the solemn and repeated assurances of the Democratic speakers and writers that theirs is the party of reform and purity; that they mean to run the Presidential campaign on the platform of honesty, intelligence and ability, and that their National Convention was intent upon inaugurating reform, and competent to do it, we should scarcely be able to believe that all the good is to result from the gathering at St. Louis. It was not necessary even to go beyond the reports of the Democratic newspapers to get the impression that there was a great mob of ruffians bullying the delegates; that discord and riot were predominant, and that the scenes at St. Louis during three or four days were nothing better than disgraceful. Whiskey, money and the strong arm of the professional rough made very much more impression than those legitimate and intellectual arguments which we might have supposed would have influenced the course of a great political party of which we are told every day that it is devoted to reform. The able editors of the Democratic organs who write so beautifully and trippingly on one page of the newspaper of its high moral aims and the pure tone pervading the party, would exert more influence and persuade more people if turning to the telegrams in the same issue did not reveal the fact that for a body of Reformers the St. Louis delegates were surrounded by a curiously inappropriate gang of hangers-on, and that the proceedings have been remarkably out of place in connection with a Convention that is to purge the public service of all corruption and instal the reign of the saints. Now the Jews were so particular as to Reformers, that they carefully considered even the town from which they came. "Can any good come out of Nazareth?" they inquired. But suppose the Saviour had been surrounded by whisky bloats, shoulder hitters, and the splendid elements of Reform, such as even Tammany could not endure,—and in the midst of their quarrelling and fighting had given assurances that they were about to inaugurate a great Reform in morals and religion,—what would have been thought of it?

The Democratic Convention at St. Louis was made up, accepting the record of Democratic journals, of the worst element that ever disgraced a political party. The streets, bar-rooms, and places of gathering were scenes of rows, fighting and the like, until MORRISSEY and KELLY were appealed to to control their respective crowds. And back of the Convention, the past history of the Democracy, whether considered as to the party or the individuals composing it, shows that it has been of the worst. The catalogue of its misdeeds comprises some of the darkest pages in our history. When did they repent? When were they converted and regenerated? They do not profess to be better than they have been in the past,—when they gave moral support to the rebellion, sustained TWEED and Tammany in their robberies, and attempted to pay rebel war claims. Yet they boldly take the banner of Reform, and start out to regenerate the politics of the country. Is it not a most stupendous farce! Imagine JOHN MORRISSEY, the patron saint of a new Reform administration! Yet such is the proposition brought before us. We are asked to accept these rebels and bushwackers as the pure element of the country. It is one of the anomalies of our history. The element which, in the interest of slavery originated a most shameless and bloody rebellion, and which has been notorious for twenty years, for its unblushing peculations and robberies, suddenly steps to the front, when amnestied and pardoned, and declares that it will take this Government under its fatherly care and restore things to pureness!

A CHAPTER FROM HISTORY.

The letter of Hon. JOHN SCOTT, which appears elsewhere in our columns, in reply to the attacks made upon him in a contemporary, in relation to the removal of DAVID REED, ESQ., and the appointment in his stead of Hon. H. H. McCORMICK as United States District Attorney, will be read with much interest by all our readers, and the public generally, inasmuch as it furnishes a truthful page of unwritten history, and lets a flood of light in upon a subject hitherto but illy understood. It was prepared at the solicitation of the friends of Mr SCOTT, and he reluctantly furnished it, as he did not wish to engage in a newspaper controversy on this or any other subject. We say this much in justice to the gentleman, and in order that his position may be understood.

So far as Mr. SCOTT is concerned, personally, the vindication his letter affords was not at all necessary to those who are acquainted with the man and his character; but to those of our readers unacquainted with either, who had read the vile and untruthful insinuations of a morning journal, or who had connected him in any way with the vain tricks of the political office seeker, or who had heard the cheap talk about his asking improper conditions prior to the appointment of any man, it was thought best that, for the truth of local history, the unvarnished story of Mr. REED's appointment should be told, and the real reason shown for Mr. McCORMICK's failure to receive the appointment, while it was within the control of Mr. SCOTT. That this latter has been shown clearly, unmistakably shown to have been secured in opposition to the personal appeals of Mr. CAMERON, and through the single effort of Mr. SCOTT, admits of no doubt; and accounts for the attempt of Mr. McCORMICK to misrepresent the gentleman out of pure malignity.

That Mr. SCOTT can withstand their malicious and unjust attacks needs no argument from us. When the fact is known that President GRANT has thrice, recently, offered him a seat in his Cabinet, perhaps it will be admitted even by his bitterest enemy that it is worse than idle to attempt to publicly assail him. His purity as a public man, his ability as a counsellor, and his thoroughness in executive and ministerial ability have been more than once admitted by the President, who has sought to secure his services. Prior to the appointment of Secretary BRISTOW to the post he so honorably filled, the vacant chair was offered to Mr. SCOTT. Again, upon the retirement of that distinguished gentleman, the position was re-offered, and with almost every change of late years in the Cabinet, the President has not only advised with him, but tendered the position to him thus made vacant.

We would not refer to these matters at this time—and we do so wholly without the knowledge of Mr. SCOTT—were it not that we wish to correct an erroneous impression of his standing as a public man, sought to be made by his assailants, and at the same time, by contrast, with his standing and incentive to duty, even in matters so slight as the appointment of a petty officer, show up fairly the utter littleness of those who, in this instance, have undertaken to assail him. They are so very far beneath him in all that goes to make a perfect man, that the comparison only adds to their supreme insignificance.

We imagine that Mr. McCORMICK will not wish to stir the subject up any further, unless he desires published some of the letters sent to Mr. SCOTT from which, as he tells us, he "learned a great deal more about him (McCORMICK) than he had known before"—and which proved to him that "DON CAMERON and R. W. MACKEY had been particularly anxious to have him appointed" in order that they might "use him for their purposes," and which induced him to recommend Mr. REED instead. Those letters, perhaps, are as well out of sight so far as McCORMICK is concerned; but had Mr. SCOTT wished to avail himself of the tactics employed against him, in the publication of confidential letters, "MAC" might find sudden and unexpected employment in looking into the zeal and friendship of some of his present adherents. He will probably agree with us, that those letters are better where they are, in the hands of a gentleman who does not choose to publish a "confidential" communication.

And now to close, we remark: Mr. CAMERON has secured the appointment "without consulting the Attorney General;" Mr. REED, a faithful public officer, is put aside without cause, or ceremony, or notice of any kind; Mr. McCORMICK is confirmed by the Senate and occupies the position, or will do so shortly, and it remains to be seen whether he will prove himself a better officer than the one displaced, or become a mere instrument in the hands of his political guardian who seated him at last in the coveted place. It also remains to be seen whether such work strengthens the CAMERON Ring in Western Pennsylvania, or, on the contrary, whether the whirlwind will not yet be reaped by those who have made this studied effort to sow the wind. It is promised and will come, doubtless, in good time. Till then good Republicans can afford to wait.

THE RECENT APPOINTMENT.

Its Inside History—Letter from Hon. John Scott.

PITTSBURGH, June 30, 1876.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

In articles published in some of the city newspapers, relating to the recent change in the office of U. S. District Attorney, quite free use has been made of my name, and in such a manner as to convey the charge that Mr. McCormick, the recent appointee, was not appointed when the office became vacant by the death of Mr. Swoope because he refused to accede to dishonorable conditions which I sought to impose upon him in regard to Mr. Swoope's accounts. All that is merely personal, or intended to be sneering and disparaging in the articles I pass over without notice, and, in accordance with the habit of my life, would be disposed to let it all pass unheeded and live it down as I have other newspaper attacks, were it not that friends in whose judgment I have confidence advise me that silence may be construed into an admission of the charge. Yielding to their judgment as better advised of what is expected in a community of which I have but recently become a citizen, I ask the privilege of your columns for a brief statement.

The charge is made upon a letter of mine to Mr. McCormick, which, although marked "private and confidential," I find published, as follows:

[Confidential and private.]
U. S. SENATE CHAMBER,
WASHINGTON, March 13, 1874

MY DEAR SIR:—

I failed to see Gen. Cameron yesterday. We conferred together to-day, and have agreed to recommend your appointment.

I promised the family of Mr. Swoope that I would arrange with whoever was appointed to continue as the assistant young Adams, and there are some other things in connection with the probable state of Swoope's business that I would like to talk with you about. Can't you run over so as to see me here Saturday evening. Telegraph me if you can come.

Yours, JOHN SCOTT.
H. H. McCORMICK.

Prior to the date of that letter a number of applicants had been named, and a great deal of opposition made to most of them, but no one had been agreed upon. At the conference with General Cameron I had said to him that there were one or two subjects upon which I must be satisfied before we recommended McCormick, and that I would write to him to come over. Accordingly, that letter was written. One of the subjects is expressly named in the letter—the retention of Adams. The other that I wished to see him about was the state of Swoope's accounts, and the reason why I wished to see him is now argued into a dishonest proposal to do what his duty would not permit. If I ever made such a proposal, Mr. McCormick could as easily state what it was as to furnish the letter for publication, and leave the editor to make an argument from it. No such proposal was ever made, and the letter bears no such construction. A reference to some other facts is necessary to put it in its true light.

I had no knowledge of the condition of Mr. Swoope's affairs when he died. The first intimation that any trouble was probable about his accounts came to me in a letter from Major Errett, in which he said he apprehended some deficiencies would appear, and recommended that in filling the office a man of prudence and experience who would do his whole duty but without making unnecessary trouble should be selected as his successor. He named such a gentleman at Pittsburgh, one whom I knew and in whom I had confidence. I tried but failed to secure the concurrence of Gen. Cameron in his appointment. Mrs. Swoope sent Mr. Adams to me with a request that I would secure his retention as Assistant upon the ground that his knowledge of Mr. Swoope's affairs would be of great service to her in the settlement of his estate. I asked Mr. Adams if he knew of any deficiency in Swoope's accounts. He said some moneys had been collected recently, before his death, that were not paid over, but there was enough in bank to meet these liabilities, and beyond these he knew of none. Mrs. Swoope had also heard of the alleged deficiency and expressed to me the hope that it could be speedily ascertained, and her desire to shield the reputation of her husband by paying it out of her own estate, if such deficiency really existed and her means were adequate to pay it. I desired to see Mr. McCormick because I wished to accommodate Mrs. Swoope by having Adams retained, and I wanted to present the probable deficiency in Swoope's accounts to him just as Major Errett had presented it to me and to request that if any deficiences were found he would at the earliest moment report them to Mrs. Swoope, that she might, if able, pay them. This was the whole intent and meaning of my letter.

It is alleged Mr. McCormick refused to come to Washington to have conditions imposed. He wrote a reply to my letter and he publishes my telegram sent on receipt of it, as follows:

WASHINGTON, March 18, 1874.

To H. H. McCormick:

My letter imposed no conditions, but I am surprised at the distrust implied, or that I could wish any one continued if found unacceptable after trial. JOHN SCOTT.

There are four days intervening between the date of my letter to him and this telegram. Immediately upon the receipt of this telegram he did come to Washington. He gave as his reason for not coming sooner that he had gone to Pittsburgh, remained several days and did not get my letter until his return to Harrisburg. In these intervening days by some means the public was informed that he was to be appointed. I learned a great deal more about him by letters and telegrams from Pittsburgh in those days than I had known before. When I got his letter I considered it equivocal, and in the light of what I had learned at once made up my mind that Don Cameron and R. W. Mackey, who had been particularly anxious to have him appointed, were seeking to entrap me into the appointment of a man whom they expected to use for their purposes. I immediately informed Gen. Cameron that I would not recommend Mr. McCormick. I then telegraphed Mr. Reed to know if he would accept the office, and he replied he would. His appointment had been suggested by a number of persons in Pittsburgh. When Mr. McCormick came to Washington, if conditions and promises could have induced me to change my mind; they were offered in profusion, but not one word was uttered as to any proposal of mine to him being improper. I informed him in Gen. Cameron's presence of my determination, and proposed to end the matter at once by going to the President and having him make the appointment. Gen. Cameron and I did go together to the President. I asked the appointment of Mr. Reed, he that of McCormick, and, after hearing us the President appointed Mr. Reed. In Mr. Reed's appointment, when it was made, Gen. Cameron acquiesced, although he preferred Mr. McCormick.

This was the end of it, except that after all this had occurred I received, late that evening a letter from Mr. McCormick dated several days before, declining to be a candidate for the place.

In referring to letters, I have not access to them, as all my correspondence of this character remains boxed up at my former home.

I had no other knowledge of Mr. Swoope's affairs than that derived from Mr. Errett's letter, and that obtained from Mr. Adams and Mrs. Swoope, nor have I had any connection with them since in any form except to render Mrs. Swoope, at her request, some friendly service in ascertaining from the departments at Washington the amount of her husband's liabilities, and aiding her, when I could, to dispose of his property to the best advantage so that she might, so far as possible, meet them. I have never sought to influence any public officer in any manner in relation to them.

Any part I have taken with reference to the removal of Mr. Reed was in the exercice of my right as a citizen to secure to Mr. Reed fair play, and to the bar and citizens an opportunity to be heard upon the subject if they wished to be heard. I was in Washington on other business, and I considered it entirely proper to ask this of the President upon learning from him as I did, that the removal of Mr. Reed and the appointment of Mr. McCormick had been made solely at the request of the Secretary of War; that no complaint of Mr. Reed and no applications for Mr. McCormick's appointment had come from the bar or the public, and that he had made it without consulting the Attorney General. My rights as a citizen I shall continue to exercise undeterred even by assaults upon me in newspapers, and if my independent action in public life has been so troublesome to either politicians or editors that they feel relieved at my retiring, I can assure them that they need not be disturbed with the idea that I have the slightest desire for any office whatever.

Yours, &c., JOHN SCOTT.

Max Adeler Runs for the Presidency.

I have pretty much made up my mind now to run for the Presidency. What the country wants is a candidate who cannot be injured by investigation of his past history, so that the enemies of the party will be able to rake up against him things that nobody ever heard of before. If you know the most about a candidate, to begin with, every attempt to spring things on him will be checkmated. Now, I am going to enter the field with an open record. I am going to own up in advance to all the wickedness I have done, and if any Congressional Committee is disposed to prowl around my biography, in the hope of finding any dark and deadly deed which I have secreted, why, let it prowl.

In the first place, I admit that I did tree a rheumatic grandfather of mine in the winter of 1859. He was old and inexpert at climbing trees. But with a heartless brutality that is characteristic of me, I ran him out of the front door in his nightshirt, at the point of a shot-gun, and caused him to bowl up a maple tree, where he remained all night, while I emptied shot into his legs. I did this because he snored. I will do it again if I ever have another grandfather. I am as inhuman now as I was in 1859. No rheumatic person shall snore in my house.

The last time I ran for the Presidency there was some unpleasant talk about my implication in a transaction with the widow Pollocks' ducks. The matter was hushed up; but I have no objection to admitting the truth respecting it. I have always had a favorite theory that roast ducks were conducive to hysterical symptoms, and as every instinct of my nature prompted me to protect the widow from the ravages of hysteria, I entered the coop in the garden, and regretfully but firmly removed those ducks. The fact that she began a prosecution against me is not a matter of consequence. It is the fate of the philanthropist to be misunderstood. But duty is my guiding star, and if it leads me to ducks or destruction I shall follow it.

I candidly acknowledge that I ran away at the battle of Gettysburg. My friends have tried to smooth over this fact by asserting that I merely got behind a tree; that I did so for the purpose of imitating Washington, who went into the woods at Valley Forge to say his prayers. It is a miserable subterfuge. I struck out in a straight line for the Tropic of Cancer, simply because I was scared. I wanted my country saved, but I preferred to have somebody else save her; I entertain that preference yet. If the bubble, reputation, can be obtained only at the cannon's mouth, I am willing to go there for it, provided the cannon is empty. If it is loaded, my immortal and inflexible purpose is to get suddenly over the fence and go home. My invariable practice in war has been to bring out of any given fight two-thirds more men than I took in. This seems to me to be Napoleonic in its grandeur.

My financial views are of the most decided character, but they are not likely, perhaps, to increase my popularity with the advocates of inflation or contraction. I do not insist upon the special supremacy of rag money or hard money. The great fundamental principle of my life is to take any kind that I can get.

The rumor that I buried a dead aunt under one of my grape vines is founded upon fact. The vines needed fertilizing, my aunt had to be buried, and I dedicated her to this high purpose. Does that unfit me for the Presidency? The constitution of our country does not say so. No other citizen was ever considered unworthy of the office because he enriched his grape vines with his relations. Why should I be selected as the first victim of an absurd prejudice.

I admit, also, that I am not a friend of the poor man. I regard the poor man, in his present condition, as so much wasted raw material. Cut up and properly canned, he might be made useful to fatten the natives of the Cannibal Islands, and to improve our export trade with that region; I shall recommend legislation upon the subject in my first message. My campaign cry will be "Dessicate the poor workman! Stuff him into sausages!"

These are about the worst parts of my record. On them I come before the country. If my country don't want me I will go back again. But I recommend myself as a safe man—a man who starts from the basis of total depravity, and proposes to be fiendish to the last.—The Illustrated Week'y.

THE OLD MILL.

One hundred years the mill has stood;
One hundred years the dashing flood;
Has turned the wheel with roaring sound,
Through foaming waters, round and round.

One hundred years; and overhead
The same broad roof of blue is spread;
And in the meadows, bright and green,
The miller's children still are seen.

And thus the world is still the same;
The sunset clouds are turned to flame;
And while we live, and when we die,
The lark still carols in the sky.

And others rise to fill our place,
We sleep and others run the race;
And earth beneath and skies above
Are still the same, and God is love.

The crowds of customers that have thronged our store rooms all week show that the bargains we are offering are genuine. We can confidently assert that persons buying Dry Goods can save at least 25 cents on the dollar by making their purchases from us during the continuance of this sale. As but few weeks now remain in which to close out our immense stock we are every day offering new inducements by making special offerings in each department. We only solicit an examination of our stock and feel sure that we can make it an object for you to call and see us. Remember the stock MUST BE SOLD, and but a few weeks yet remain to do so.

Latest Advices Concerning Money and Stock Matters.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
MONDAY, July 3, 1876.

Business at the banks was a little brighter than has been the case for several days, owing to the fact that it was "Dividend Day," and the stockholders were around to see about their interests. It is gratifying to note that the dividends were generally were encouraging, indicating that the business at the banks during the past month, though it has been dull, has been fairly profitable. In the line of discounts on Saturday there was not much done. Some maturing paper was attended to, and generally borrowers secured a rate that was a shade lower than they had to pay when they appeared for favors before. A fair proportion of maturing paper was paid entirely, but when a renewal was asked by a reliable customer, the banks were only too glad to accommodate him. There will hardly be much done at the banks now for several days, as the thoughts of business men,—who are patriots as well as business men—are turned to the Fourth, and they generally propose to give one day at least to their country.

—Financial Editor of Public Ledger: A's credit in bank is $1,000. A gives B a check for $1,000. The same day the check is presented for payment. A's note matures for $1,000. Has the bank the right to refuse payment of the check and charge the note instead? An answer to the above will oblige. S.

HARRISBURG, June 27, 1876.

Every locality makes its own law in this respect. The banks of this city, by their representatives, meet every day at 12 o'clock at the Clearing House for exchange purposes, and any check presented before that hour against sufficient deposit would by rule and by right be paid. Up to that hour the debtor has to pay his note, and balance on hand is subject to his order; indeed, the time is usually extended to 2 o'clock. If the banks were to charge each depositor's balance up to his account as soon as the bank opens in the morning, as against liabilities maturing during the day, it would be equivalent to requiring provision for payment of liabilities a day in advance. There are, however, exceptions to all rules, those made by banks as well as those made by individuals, and if a bank should hear early in the morning of the day that the debtor of a note due that day had failed, run away or been overcome by any calamity likely to financially incapacitate him for the time, it is quite probable that, under the proverb that self-preservation is the first law of nature, the bank would let the check pass dishonored and apply the deposit to the maturing note.

—Advance sheets of Poor's Manual of Railroads gives the total miles of railroads whose operations are reported for 1875 at 71,759 miles, and the total earnings at $503,065,505, against $520,466,016 for 1874, a decrease of $17,400,511. This decrease is almost entirely confined to freight receipts, which have fallen from $379,466,935 in 1874 to $363,960,234 in 1875. The quantity of freight moved has not diminished, but the low rates that have prevailed have reduced the earnings. The net results, however, almost equal those of 1874, and surpass those for any other former year, being $185,506,438, against $189,570,958 for 1874. This shows a great reduction in operating expenses, and is a move in the right direction. The dividends paid were $74,294,208, an increase over 1874 of $7,251,266. The tables which accompany the Manual are more complete than ever before, and will be found valuable for future reference.

—A careful count of money in the various divisions of the United States Treasurer's Office is now being made, for the purpose of turning the accounts and vouchers over to the new Treasurer. The amount in the reserve vaults foots up $21,969,894. It will take several days to complete the count.

Governments were dull and strong. Railroad bonds were firm. State bonds were quiet and nominal. Stocks were firm and higher in early dealings, the improvement ranging from ⅛ to ½, led by Lake Shore and Michigan Central. Condition of the Markets at Home and Abroad.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY July 1, 1876.

General business continues sluggish, more so possibly than it usually is at this particular time, which may be accounted for by the fact that our merchants, in consequence of having lost a good deal in the shape of bad debts, are refusing to trade with parties, about whose ability and willingness to meet there bills promptly there is the slightest doubt, except on a cash basis. Nearly all our merchants would increase their business if they were willing to taking the chances, as they did prior to the panic, but this they are very wisely refusing to do, preferring to do less business and make a little money than to do more, and lose largely in bad debts.

APPLES—New crop are coming forward freely, and prices are drooping; quotable at $2a3 per bbl, as to quality.

BERRIES—Raspberries, $8a9 ₩ stand, according to quality and condition. Cherries, $5a6.

BEANS—Continue very dull, and prices are nominal at 90ca$1 ₩ bu.

BUTTER—There is nothing new to record in the market for this important staple; there is a fair demand for choice, but common and medium grades continue very dull. Sales of prime to choice solid packed at 16a18c.

CHEESE—The market is still reported steady; prime new Ohio Factory 8½a8¾c to the trade, and 9½a10c in a jobbing way.

DRIED FRUIT—Is about out of season, and in the absence of sales we omit quotations.

EGGS—The market, as noted in our last, is a shade weaker, and as holders generally are anxious to realize and the demand less active, the tendency is downward. Quotations for fresh may be given at 17a18c.

FLOUR—Spring Wheat flours, $6a6.75, the outside figure for choice Minnesotas; red winters, $6.50 a7; ambers, 7.25a7.50; patent process, and fancy white wheat $8.50a9.50. Rye Flour, 4.75a5.

GROCERIES—The grocery markets, with the exception of Sugars, continue dull, and devoid of anything important. Our merchants nearly all report an increasing demand for Sugars, but they complain that the price is cut so close that it scarcely pays to handle them.

GRAIN—There is little or no demand for Wheat, and in the absence of sales, we omit quotations. The supply of Corn is very small, and with some inquiry, the market is firmer; Shelled may be quoted at 52a55c for good high mixed to prime yellow, free in elevator. The Oat market continues dull, with a supply fully up to present wants, but there has been no change in prices recently; 32a33c for mixed and 34a35c for white. Some dealers are holding back in hopes of being able to realize better prices, while others are willing sellers at quoted rates. Rye unchanged at 75a75c.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE
SATURDAY, July 1, 1876.

CATTLE.

Of the 354 cars reported for the week ending at noon to-day, 264 cars were through and 89 cars local stock. Sales 1,653 head.

As stated in our report of last Saturday, it was generally expected that we would have a better market this week, and to some extent these expectations were realized. From, and including Monday up until Wednesday noon, business was active, the number changing hands on Tuesday was unusually large, and prices were advanced 10a15c ₩ cwt; on Wednesday afternoon, however, an offish feeling was developed, in consequence of an increased run of through stock, and while there was no quotable decline in prices, trade was very meagre during the balance of the week. Both Philadelphia and New York took an increased number, and there was a fair number of country buyers in attendance, but the market did not pan out as well as it opened, and the feeling to-day is not as hopeful as it was this day week.

It is worthy of notice that nearly all grades of cattle are bringing as much in Chicago as can be obtained here; our latest advices from that point, at this writing, quote prime shipping steers at 5a5¼, whereas it required something very fine to bring more than 5c in our market this week—so far as we could learn there was nothing wholesaled above 5.10, and but one lot at that. Buyers admit that cattle are as cheap here as they are at the point in question, but allege that it is difficult to get the kind they want; in other words, the offerings being much larger in Chicago there is a better chance for selections.

QUOTATIONS.

Good 1,350a1,400 Steers	5.00a5.10
Good 1,250a1,300 Steers	4.50a4.75
Good 1,050a1,100 Steers	4.00a4.25
Stockers, according to quality (800a1,000 lbs)	3.50a4.00
Cows, Bulls and Stags	3.00a3.50

SHEEP.

The supply has been almost double that of last week, and with increased offerings and unfavorable reports from the east, the market has been an exceedingly hard one on sellers; prices, as compared with this day week, may be quoted down 40a50c per cwt, and we presume some had to be shipped on in first hands. It was generally expected that last Saturday that there would be a good market this week, but the arrivals were much larger than had been calculated upon, and instead of being better, it proved to be the worst of the season. Next week it is expected the arrivals will be small, in view of the recurrence of the national holiday, and, if so, we may have a better market, but buyers in the west should be extremely cautious.

QUOTATIONS.

HOGS

The market closed steady to-day, although there has been no material change in prices since Thursday; as compared with this day week, however, there has been an advance of 40a50c ₩ cwt. The run was comparatively light, especially within the past few days, and as the supply was scarcely equal to the demand, sellers had no difficulty in establishing the advance to which reference has been made, and the market closes steady at quotations, with none remaining unsold.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
SATURDAY, July 1, 1876.

WEEKLY REVIEW.

The market for Refined has been unusually active during the past week, and a sharp advance in values was established; prices are higher than they have been for more than a year, and trade has been considerably stimulated in [consequence.] Nearly every refinery hereabouts is in full operation, many of them working up to their full capacity, and the production at present is as large as ever it has been in the history of the trade; the outside refiners have all started up within the past week or two, and as all are busy there is not so much complaining, although there is no abatement of the hostility towards the Penna. R. R. Co. on the part of the outsiders. The raw article is also higher, but it has not responded fully to the advance in the product, and this is rather remarkable, as heretofore it has always been quick to follow a rise; and for a number of years it ruled higher, relatively, than the product. Producers attribute it to the combination, claiming that the managers are so manipulating the markets as to advance the product and keep down the raw article; be this as it may, there is no question but they, the managers aforesaid, have the business well in hand, and it is fair to presume that they intend to make all they can out of it. Late advices from the source of supply report business brisk; some correspondents claim that the shipments out of the producing region recently have been 40,000 barrels per day, nearly double the production, but this may be an exaggeration, made in the interest of those who want to realize better prices.

It is worthy of notice that the refining interest of Pittsburgh is about the only one that is at all active, and it has infused some life into several other branches of business, including barrel making, hoop iron, glue, thereby giving employment, directly and indirectly to a large number of men.

CRUDE.

The market was steady to day, but without much change in prices as compared with yesterday: United certificate, $2.11½ bid; immediate shipment, $2.30a2.32½.

REFINED.

There has been no quotable change in prices since yesterday. New York, 15c; Philadelphia delivery, 15¾c; Baltimore, 15¾c; on cars here, 12¾ bid; 12⅞ asked.

OIL BARRELS.

Firm and in demand, with an advancing tendency; countries, $1.15; city make, $1.25a1.30.

RECEIPTS AND SHIPMENTS.

Receipts crude by rail for the week 18,844 bbls; by rail and Conduit pipe line from January 1st to date, 678,219 bbls, against 478,612 bbls same time last year. Shipments of refined eastward for the week, 27,844 bbls; January 1st to date, 452,980 bbls—this includes 54,000 bbls shipped to Richmond and not before reported; same time last year, 275,040 bbls.

THE WOOL TRADE.

New York.

For domestic wools the market shows no very decidedly new features. There is, as before noted, more or less irregularity in the views of dealers, and in some cases a direct conflict of statement in regard to the general tone, due in a measure to good or bad luck in securing customers. There has certainly been a larger number of buyers looking around during the last half of the month, and quite an array of small odd sales made, yet, in reality, the total movement was nothing remarkable, and has been freely met on all grades. Indeed, the disposition is evidently to keep supplies moving right along as opportunity occurs, and not many dealers are anxious to re-stock from fresh purchases in the country. Values, however, are very generally admitted to be low, and easy on all leading styles, and after the holiday season it is believed that matters can gradually be adjusted between the producer, dealer and manufacturer to bring about a more healthy and uniform condition of trade. The Western clip promises well in quantity and quality, but there is not much of it wanted here at present. Foreign wools of all kinds are dull, and have only a nominal market value.

Sales during the week of 5,000 lbs XX Ohio at 37c; 4,000 lbs do do 37c; 15,000 lbs do, 10 bales super pulled, 5,000 lbs extra pulled, 3,500 lbs combing, 4,000 lbs fat sheep's wool on private terms; 3,000 lbs fine Texas at 24c; 3,000 lbs do Eastern at 20c; 25,000 lbs 17c; 5,000 lbs 17c; 23,000 lbs do Western Texas 17c; 15,000 lbs and 21,000 lbs on private terms; 6,000 lbs heavy fall California 12½c; 75,000 lbs spring do 15@20c; 20 bales do, 5,000 lbs pulled California, 10,000 lbs burry southern, 10,000 lbs Colorado, 75 bales African on private terms, and 6,000 lbs Eastern Oregon at 28c.—Bulletin.

Philadelphia.

RIVER NEWS.

State of the Rivers, Movements of Steamboats, &c.

THE stage of water last evening was 3 feet 5 inches, and falling. Heavy rains Saturday night; showery yesterday, and the prospects are favorable for more water.

COL. MERRILL was in town on Saturday.

THE Exchange will make an excursion trip to-morrow.

THE Arlington is loading at Cincinnati for New Orleans.

THE Shannon will be repaired at New Orleans before leaving for the Ohio.

THE Phaeton was to have made her first trip between Wheeling and Bellaire on Saturday.

SAM AYLES, the well known steamboat clerk, is now in the lumber business in New Orleans.

MR. DAVID R. SHEPPARD, an old Missouri river pilot, died at his residence in St. Louis, on Thursday last.

THE new steamer Gov. Garland, Capt. Bowlin, will positively take her departure for Arkansas River to-day.

THE I. S. Keifer departed for Huntington, on Friday, with a tow of oil. The Iron City will be the next boat out.

CAPT. JNO. J. DARRAGH is again in command of the Rosa Miller, which left Memphis for Little Rock, last Tuesday.

THE Harrison stuck her tow at Brown's Island on Thursday night, and was assisted off by the Mon[illegible] and Iron Valley.

CAPT. J. J. BROWN, of New Orleans, has chartered the Ouachita Belle to take the place of the Gov. Allen, the latter packet retiring.

THE city docks have been removed from the bend above the Wheeling Top Mill, and are now lying below the bridge on the Island shore.

THE E. D. Wood was towed to Evansville yesterday by the Silverthorne, having broken her machinery. She will receive a new cylinder.

AFTER blowing up the steamer Saltillo, in Lake Erie, it was found to contain no railroad iron. Five hundred bars of this is what Irwin Dugan was fishing for.

AN ocean steamer, to draw 20 feet, and to be loaded with western bulk corn, is the latest proposal of the New Orleans merchants. She is to go to sea through the South Pass and Eads' jetties.

THE towboats Sam Brown, Mary Ann and Dick Fulton No. 3 have arrived. The Reindeer started down to meet the Charley McDonald; will turn back, and take a tow of rails from Marietta to Louisville.

THE Salt Valley will be found at the landing this morning, and will return to Ironton to-day at 4 P. M. In addition to giving close attention to way business, she will receipt through to Cincinnati and Louisville. She is of light draft, and no apprehension of detention by low water need be entertained.

MRS. EMMA WEEKS, widow of Robert Weeks, sued the New Orleans and Carrollton Railroad for damages caused by the death of her husband by being run over by one of their cars, and got judgment, last Saturday, for $5,500. Mr. Weeks was formerly a well-known discharging clerk at New Orleans.

DIRECT trade between New Orleans, Louisiana and Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, is at last about to be realized, the arrangements of the new line of steamers, under control of the "South American Company," being nearly completed. France provides the capital, and puts into the service first-class steamers.

THE St. Louis Globe says: Capt. Jim McDonald arrived here yesterday, and will pilot the Iron Mountain to Pittsburgh. She has 300 tons engaged if she gets all. The Nellie Peck arrived direct from Fort Benton with 200 tons of furs, corn, &c. In passing under the bridge she struck and knocked her chimneys down. HOME NEWS.

The probabilities for to-day are clear or fair weather, stationary temperature, southerly and southwesterly winds, and a slight rise of barometer.

Base Ball.

Eight innings were played at Union Park on Saturday between the New Haven and Allegheny clubs, the former winning by the following score.

Innings	1	2	3	4	5	6	7	8
Alleghenys	1	6	0	0	0	0	0	0	—7
New Havens	1	3	4	1	0	0	0	0	—9

These same clubs play again this afternoon, and the Alleghenys and Braddocks to-morrow.

Young Rowdies.

On Saturday evening the Liddell base ball club was playing out Frankstown avenue, when James Beecher, Wm. Bradburn, and Dan Atkinson made a raid on the boys and chased the club off the ground. During the muss Beecher cut one of the boys on the arm with a knife. All three were arrested, Beecher bailed for a hearing, and Atkinson and Bradburn were locked up.

Serious Accident.

On Saturday afternoon a seven year old boy was run over on Fulton street, Allegheny, by a heavy wagon and rendered insensible. The driver drove on and paid no attention to the injured child, and he was left lying in the street for some time before he was found, when he was carried to his home at the corner of Hamlin and Fulton streets and medical aid summoned. He was injured internally very seriously, and it is feared he cannot recover.

Heavy Robbery.

A correspondent, "J. N. G." writing to us from Canonsburg says that on Saturday, the 25th ult., Mr. Thomas Slater, of Cecil township, Washington county, was robbed of $1,700 in Government bonds and $25 in money. He was out in the field a day or so after the robbery and found an old valise which he thought looked like one he had at home. Going home he made the discovery that the valise found was the one the bonds were in, and that the bonds were gone. He supposes they were taken while the family were at church.

Explanation.

Dr. Bingaman seems somewhat aggrieved at the manner in which his name was connected with the article in Saturday's GAZETTE headed "Infanticide." He says that he was not privy to any attempt at concealment of the child's death, his connection with the case being simply to direct the woman and child to be removed to the hospital. We cheerfully make the explanation, disclaiming, however, any intention to reflect upon the worthy Doctor and regretting that he felt injured at the manner in which the publication was worded.

Invitation to All.

As will be seen by the following invitation from Bishop Kerfoot, Thanksgiving services will be held at Trinity church to-morrow, Tuesday morning, the 4th inst:

BISHOP'S HOUSE, 11 CLIFF STREET,
July 1, 1876.

Will the editors of the GAZETTE oblige me by publishing this official invitation to the clergy and people of my charge, and to any and all who will come, to the joint service of Thanksgiving in Trinity church, on Tuesday morning, the Fourth, at 9 o'clock. The clergy and vestrymen and other official persons are requested to meet in the Chapel of Trinity church at 20 minutes before 9.

J. B. KERFOOT, Bishop.

Throat Cutting at Bellevue.

John Seymour was seriously cut in the throat last Friday night in Bellevue borough. John Ball was standing in front of the store of his brother when Seymour, who was deeply intoxicated, came staggering along and told him to get out of his way or he would give him a scuffle. Ball had his knife open at the time and was whittling a stick. He tried to get away and avoid Seymour, but the latter ran after him, and made a feint to strike him, whereupon Ball, suddenly turning around and throwing up his hand to ward off the blow, struck Seymour in the throat with the point of the knife, inflicting an ugly and dangerous cut. The loss of blood was very great but Dr. Schnatterly succeeded in stopping it, after which Seymour was brought to this city and placed in the West Penn hospital. Ball gave himself up and was released on bail.

Great Commotion at 85 Smithfield.

Considerable excitement and quite a revolution in the Shoe business has been occasioned by the opening of the Eagle Shoe Store, No. 85 Smithfield street, where Messrs. E. Will & Company are displaying one of the most elegant, most varied, and best selected assortment of boots, shoes and gaiters to be found within the limits of either city. They propose conducting this line of business with some new and popular features, an especial one of which will be the keeping of goods, not adapted to one or two classes of wearers, but for all classes and for all kinds of work or wear, from the gaiter of the most delicate and ornate finish and style to the veriest brogan. They will also deal honestly and justly with all, representing goods only in their true character, making no deceptive speeches for the purpose of making sales. Their boots and shoes will be sold so cheap that none may compete with them in price.

The Art Journal.

The Art Journal for July, No. 19, is one of the best numbers of that excellent publication yet issued. The Journal is devoted to the world of Art-Painting, Sculpture, Architecture, etc., and it is the object of the publishers, D. Appleton & Co., 549 and 551 Broadway, New York, to make it the most valuable publication of its character in the world. Each number, in addition to the very able and interesting articles, from the pens of some of our most popular art critics, contains three steel plates, those in the present number being "The Homely Meal-Brittany," from a painting by T. Goodall, R. A.; "Villanella," from a painting by Ch. N. Jalabert, and "In the Glenn," from a sketch by Sir Edward Landseer, either one of which is worth much more than the entire price of the number, which is seventy-five cents or nine dollars per annum. The Art Journal is sold only by subscription, either yearly, delivered through the post, prepaid or payable monthly on delivery by the carrier. The July number contains an able article on "Ancient Irish Art—The Shrine of St. Manchan," by Lewellyn Jewett, F. S. A., and in addition to the plates mentioned there are a number of illustrations of a very interesting character, including "Paintings at the Centennial Exhibition," "Studies and Sketches by Sir Edward Landseer" and many others, all combining to make it a very valuable work, which ought to be on the table of every lover of art.

MORE DEFRAUDERS.

Additional Arrests of Luzerne County Embezzlers.

P. F. Lynch, ex-Clerk of Commissioners and also ex-Clerk of the Auditors of Luzerne county, was arrested at Wilkesbarre on Friday on a charge of having aided, abetted and being accessory to the embezzlement of about six thousand dollars of license money, by ex-Treasurer James Courtright. He had a hearing and was held in $6,000 bail for Court. Courtright was the only witness examined, and he testified to a manipulation of the licenses at the time of the audit, and that Lynch had made the proposition to him. J. C. Coon, editor of the Scranton Sunday Free Press, and one of the County Auditors, was also arrested the same day on a charge of being implicated in making an improper audit of the accounts and so shielding some of those who have been already prosecuted for robbing the county treasury. He was held to bail in $6,000.

UNEARTHING ILLEGALITY.

Slight Police Irregularity in Allegheny—Chief Ross' Pistol Practice.

At the meeting of the Allegheny Police Committee on Saturday night, Controller Brown stated that for four years past there had been an irregularity in the apportionment of the salary of the police force. Councils adopted an ordinance in 1872, equalizing the salary of patrolmen and Lieutenants and making it $2.25 a day. In the same year the Police Committee, through ignorance of the law prescribing its powers, increased the pay of Lieutenants to $2.45 per day and reduced the patrolman to $2.20 per day. The Controller made it clear that their act in this connection had been illegal; that they had no authority to set aside an ordinance and substitute a provision like this. All the members became convinced of the irregularity of the thing and spent a good deal of time turning over in their minds what was best to be done. It was finally decided to have the ordinance revised, and Messrs Knox, McKelvey, and Sholes were appointed for that purpose.

The signing of the police pay rolls for June brought up the action of Chief Ross on the morning of Sunday, the 25th ult., when he fired three shots from his revolver at a newsboy who was crying papers on the street in front of his house. He was pretty severely criticised and several of the members at first declined to affix their signatures to the roll on the ground that he is incompetent for the position now occupied by him. On motion of Mr. Bedell the Mayor was requested to institute an investigation into the matter.

The Mayor was recommended to employ such an extra number of men for police duties on the Fourth as he may consider sufficient.

If the weather is too hot, and you desire not to bake your own bread, remember that bread made from the best flour that can be had, is sold by S. S. Marvin & Co., 18 Fifth avenue.

PITTSBURGH COMMITTEES.

Saturday's Work of the Water, Road, Survey, Police, Market and City Property Committees—A Statement from Mr. Lowry.

Notwithstanding the excessive heat of Saturday the Councils committeemen turned out well, six committees succeeding in getting quorums. The fact is remarkable, considering what difficulty has been experienced for some time back in getting the committeemen together. The most important action was in

The Water Committee.

Dr. Guy McCandless presided. The monthly pay rolls amounting to $7,429.29 were approved.

Dr. C. C. Rahauser and David Bruce, Esq., new members, were admitted to the deliberations.

The committee then resolved itself into the Committee on Water Extension.

The payrolls for May and June amounting, the first to $555 and the second to $565 were approved.

After considerable discussion and several motions, it was ordered, on motion of Mr. Goldthorpe, that the boilers at the pumping works be coated with linseed oil and red lead. This with the understanding that Mr. Lowry proceed with the brick work as soon as possible, and when it has progressed so far as to adapt itself to sheds that sheds be erected.

A communication from contractor Hartupee was then read. He said there were four things mentioned in the original plans and specified the of the water works, which he now requested the committee to order. The first were foundation plates to remedy the cracks in the valve chambers, caused by shrinkage. These plates were four in number and weighed fifteen tons each. When he [illegible] them he did not expect compensation for [illegible] he was compelled to being afterward condemned [illegible] $20,000. When this was make new ones at [illegible] chambers being unimpaired, done, the use [illegible] to use the plates. Recently he saw no necessity [illegible] Mechanical Engineer Lowry has understood [illegible] be best to use them; and he requests the committee, if the plates are deemed necessary, to send him an order for them, and for the amount of lead necessary to bed them. He also wished an order for two stop-gates, and one for dead weights, to be placed in the plungers of the machinery, the amount of metal in the same being about two hundred tons. He further asked that an estimate of the work done since June 4, 1875, be made as soon as possible, in order that he may get his money on it, as he cannot proceed with the work much longer if he does not.

Mr. McGimpsey was opposed to allowing any more for extras. After a short discussion the communication was referred to the Committee on Machinery.

Messrs. Robert Liddell and W. F. Aull asked that a water pipe be laid on Jackson street, near Torrence Station. Similar requests were made for a portion of Forty-second street, Thumb street and Breckenridge street. Upon motion the owners of property abutting upon them were requested to have the pipes laid at their own expense, and when the water rents come in they shall be reimbursed.

Mechanical Engineer Lowry also presented a communication, apologizing for the necessity that caused him to do so. Following are some extracts from it:

"I feel it my imperative duty to report to your committee the facts connected with the construction and erection of pumping machinery under my charge.

"In compliance with a resolution of your board, passed December 31, 1875, Mr. Hartupee was notified to immediately proceed to complete his contracts, and was also directed to erect the first pair of engines (they being the nearest to completion,) on the southwest end of the foundations. On the 19th of February, 1876, I was notified by Mr. Hartupee that he would not proceed with the erection of said first pair until he had received an order for extra air vessel check valve, and for any other extra work necessary to make the change. At the meeting of your Board held March 4th this extra work was explained, and permission was asked by your engineer to give Mr. Hartupee an order for this extra work. This request was granted, and said order was given to Mr. Hartupee, May 11th. Mr. Hartupee has erected this air vessel, but has not up to the present time done anything further toward the erection of the first pair of engines. * * * On the second pair of engines but little work has been done, as there has not at any time been more than five or six machinists engaged in erecting said second pair, and at the present but two machinists are at work at the foundation. In the erection of the machinery a great portion of the work was found to be improperly fitted at the shop and had to be refitted at the foundations. There should have been some thirty or forty mechanics set to work at the shop, in refitting and erecting, but on the contrary, there has not been on the average more than four or five men so engaged. At the shop, with the exception of replacing the defective castings (rejected June, 1875,) there has not been as much work done as should have been done in three months. The triangular beams (the pattern of which was made in 1871) have not yet been cast. Mr Hartupee, after having made the pattern for the beam, also the wrought iron work for same refused by letter dated June 15, 1876, to go any further with it until he had received from your engineer a written order for said beam. After this order had been given (January 18, 1876,) he demanded that it be approved by your committee before he would proceed, thus causing further delay. [illegible] by your sub-committee approved of [illegible] order given by your engineer, and Mr. Hartupee, who was present at the meeting, stated to the committee that he was satisfied, and would immediately proceed with the casting of the beams. This promise, however, has not been kept, and no reasonable effort has been made to complete the work. Of the eight castings required, there has not as yet been a single piece cast, and from present indications it is impossible to say when the beams will be made. * * * Up to the date of this report Mr. Hartupee is 958 days behind on the first pair of engines and 593 days behind on the second pair. * * * The work having progressed to about an equal extent on both pair of engines, and the total contract price for both pair of engines being $798,555, of which Mr. Hartupee is entitled to receive 80 per cent. up to the time of the satisfactory working of the engines. This 80 per cent. amounts to $638,844, and of this sum Mr. Hartupee has been paid to date $573,316 87, leaving a balance to be paid during the construction, erection and up to the time of the satisfactory working of the engines of $65,533.13. There are about 300,000 pounds of castings yet to be made, and fitting to be done on about 200,000 pounds that are now cast, but not fitted up. For the castings yet to be made and the fitting on those castings already made, and for the erection of the machinery, the above sum of $65,533 13 is not a greater reserve than is required by the contract. In my opinion Mr. Hartupee has received to date every dollar he is entitled to, if not more than the contract specifies. I have endeavored in every way to assist Mr. Hartupee in his work, and he has not been delayed one hour on the part of the officers of the city. But, on the contrary, it appears to have been a studied effort on the part of the contractor to evade his contract. I am therefore reluctantly compelled to report the facts as herein stated to your committee and await your further instructions."

The communication was referred to the Sub-committee on Machinery, and the committee adjourned.

The commissioner of the Second District was authorized to build a sewer-drop on Larimer avenue, to cost not more than $50. Adjourned.

RATIFICATION MEETINGS.

The Old City Endorsing Hayes and Wheeler—Meeting in the Opera House Saturday Night—Hot Weather, But Much Enthusiasm—The South Side Democratic Rally.

The Opera House was well filled on Saturday evening, on the occasion of the meeting called to ratify the nomination of Hayes and Wheeler. The house was terribly warm, but still there was much enthusiasm.

The meeting was called to order at half-past 8 o'clock by Chas. Fetterman Esq., who nominated Gen. J. K. Moorhead as Chairman. The latter gentleman on assuming the duties of that position made a short speech. He heartily endorsed the ticket, though confessing disappointment that Blaine had not been successful. The cheers with which this sentiment was received indicated that it was also the sentiment of a large majority of the audience. The speaker's personal acquaintance with Mr. Blaine was referred to, also. In concluding he spoke in favor of the purity of the ballot, and strongly urged hard work by all to secure the success of the ticket. As Chairman he then read a long list of Vice Presidents and Secretaries.

Upon motion of General Negley, a Committee on Resolutions, composed of nine members, was appointed.

The audience insisted upon having a speech from General Negley, but he declined, thanking the audience for the mark of favor shown him.

After music by the Great Western Band, calls were made for Major A. M. Brown and the new District Attorney, McCormick. The latter gentleman stepped to the front, and excused himself from making a speech.

Major Brown then took the floor. He spoke in very high terms of praise of both the nominees, but especially of Hayes, whom he characterized as a warrior in war and a citizen in peace, and compared him to Abraham Lincoln, in regard to his not being known, as well as Hayes now is, when he was nominated for the Presidency. He then referred to the Democrats declaring, in 1864, that the war was a failure, yet they now go St. Louis and resolve that the union must and shall be preserved, and think that the American people will swallow these sweet drops. Why, it's an insult to the American people. Mr. Hendricks is about as good as a Democrat ever gets to be. Tilden's great wealth—about $5,000,000—was referred to, and the speaker explained how easy it was to acquire that amount of money. He said that Tilden was intimate with Tweed, and insinuated that that had something to do with his fortune. But Tilden was false to Tweed, and can he then be trusted with great trusts? He closed by saying that he was no more interested in the election of Hayes and Wheeler than is the lowest man in the land. All are interested in having good men in office. Mr. Brown was frequently interrupted by applause, and took his seat amid universal and tremendous expressions of approval of his words.

The next speaker was Hon. Robert McKnight. He was greeted with applause when introduced, and proceeded to say that he did not know Hayes personally, but we all know how gallant, brave and honest a man he is. Any man that can get ahead of Pendleton, Bill Allen, etc., cannot help but be a good man. Mr. McKnight was well acquainted with Wheeler, and said that a purer man, a more intelligent and a more honest man he never knew. He referred to Wheeler as chairman of the committee than investigated the New Orleans troubles, and how he fixed up these difficulties, which might easily have been fanned into another civil war. Wheeler, in a letter to Mr. McKnight, said, in reference to a suggestion of Mr. McKnight's, that his and Hayes' place on the ticket should have been changed, that he considered Hayes' nomination to the first place on the ticket as ordered by a higher power than that of man. He referred to Hayes and Wheeler as protectionists, and Tilden and Hendricks as free-traders and wanted to know which Pennsylvania was likely to endorse. The story of Wheeler's noble conduct in reference to the back pay grab was told by the speaker and fittingly commented upon, and he then took his seat amid a simultaneous shout from the audience that Hayes and Wheeler shall be elected.

At this point the Committee on Resolutions came in, and reported as follows:

Resolved, That we regard the nomination of Rutherford B. Hayes and William A. Wheeler as eminently fit to be made, combining strength and purity of character, distinguished ability and tried experience in public affairs, entitling them to the esteem and confidence of the American people.

Resolved, That we heartily endorse the platform adopted at Cincinnati, and hail with gladness every effort towards making these principles a living reality on American soil.

Resolved, That to the achievements of the Republican party this nation owes its development of material resources, its rapid increase of popular happiness at home and its honor abroad.

Resolved, That the present administration is one which is approved by the calm, sober sense of the nation. The illustrious services, modest patriotism and practical wisdom of Ulysses S. Grant have endeared him to the American people, however much he may be misrepresented by those whose hatred dates back to his victory in the fields, or by those whose narrow jealousies have led them to array themselves against him.

Resolved, That the present Democratic House of Representatives has far exceeded our worst apprehensions in its measureless subserviency to party and sectional interests.

Resolved, That we pledge Allegheny county to give Hayes and Wheeler an old fashioned Republican majority; and making success a duty, we will off coats and go in, making assurance doubly sure by a long pull, a strong pull and a pull altogether.

The report was unanimously adopted.

The Glee Club, under direction of Mr. Fayette Sykes, was to have led in singing a number of campaign songs, but none of them were present. Mr. Sykes, however, started up "John Brown's Body," and the audience joined in with a will, each member of the audience having been given as he entered the house a sheet of songs printed by the County Executive Committee.

Major J. F. Slagle in response to numerous calls was introduced, and spoke for several minutes. He said he had thought that after the demoralization of two years ago that probably there would be a hard fight this fall, but he had afterward gained confidence in the belief that the Democrats at St. Louis would either put up a ticket easily beaten or else put up a platform that the people couldn't stand. The free-trade plank he thought the people of Pennsylvania couldn't swallow.

Music by the band and a number of songs by the audience, led by Mr. Snyder, followed. The enthusiasm was intense and "Marching Through Georgia" and "The Battle Cry of Freedom" were sung with a will that awoke the echoes until they resounded again. Upon the conclusion of the last named piece, a motion to adjourn was put and carried and the audience dispersed.

The Democratic Ratification.

The Democracy also held a ratification meeting on Saturday night in the South Side Diamond.

Dr. James Kerr was President, and a large number of Vice Presidents and Secretaries were elected.

Addresses were delivered by Dr. James Kerr, Dr. Keyser, ex-Speaker Patterson, Wm. A. Reardon, David Bruce and others. Senators Wallace and Kernan, Heister Clymer, and Ex-Gov. Dorsheimer, of New York, had been advertised to make speeches but they did not respond. The spectators were therefore obliged to be content with the feeble efforts of a few local speakers.

GOVERNOR R. B. HAYES.

The Republican Presidential Candidate in the City—In Attendance at Divine Service at the First Presbyterian Church—Visit to Col. Wm. A. Herron.

Governor Rutherford B. Hayes, of Ohio, the Republican candidate for President, and of course the next President of the United States, spent yesterday in this city. He arrived in the morning from Columbus on the 2:22 train, accompanied by his son, Mr. W. C. Hayes, and also by Mr Wm. M. McGill, of Pittsburgh. In the forenoon, accompanied by Mr. W. N. Riddle, cashier of the Penn bank, and Mr. Thomas J. Jack, he attended Divine service at the First Presbyterian church. Rev. Dr. Scovel's, on Wood street. The afternoon he spent in pleasant social intercourse at the residence of Colonel Wm. A. Herron. The Colonel is an old friend of the Governor's, and the latter improved the opportunity to renew their acquaintance. The Union Depot hotel was the headquarters of the distinguished visitor while here. Mayor McCarthy took breakfast there yesterday morning. Having disposed of his matutinal meal, he was in the office engaged in the necessary post-prandial operation of picking his teeth, when he happened to discover the Governor's autograph upon the hotel register. The Mayor at once procured an introduction to him, tendered him the hospitalities of the city, and spent some time in conversation. On Thursday evening Mr. Hayes will pass through the city on his return home, and the Mayor endeavored to get him to consent to stop here and deliver a speech, but the Governor politely declined, laughingly saying, "Oh, no, nothing of that kind for me." He left last evening on the 7:31 train for Philadelphia, to attend a meeting of the Ohio Board of Centennial Managers. His presence in the city was known to but a comparatively limited number of people, and therefore his visitors were not sufficiently numerous to be a source of trouble or annoyance to him.

To the Holders of Insurance Policies.

The undersigned, by instructions from the Underwriters' Association of Allegheny county (composed of all the Insurance companies doing business in the county), desires to say a word or two to the insuring public of the cities of Pittsburgh and Allegheny with reference to the use of fireworks on the coming Fourth of July.

The large number of fires occurring annually from Fourth of July celebrations is well known, some of the most disastrous which our country has witnessed having proceeded from the careless and indiscriminate use of fire-works. The great fire at Portland, Me., where the loss was ten millions of dollars, originated from the explosion of a fire-cracker. The fire in Allegheny, July 4, 1874, caused also by a fire-cracker, entailed a loss of over a quarter of a million of dollars upon the people of that city.

The two cities have each ordinances regulating the use of fire-crackers, rockets and other pyrotechnics, but there seems to be a disposition upon the part of those in authority not to enforce these ordinances upon this Centennial anniversary of the nation's birthday, and in consequence fire-works in greater quantities than ever before are likely to be used, and the danger will be proportionately increased. In view of these facts I would respectfully urge upon you the necessity of using the greatest care and vigilance and of making unusual preparations for the extinguishment of fires occurring upon, or contiguous to, your premises. The vending, storing or using of fireworks upon any premises is considered in law an increased fire hazard, and while under the existing city ordinances cannot be entirely prohibited, it is well enough for the community to know that the use of the same, without the consent of the insurance companies, voids their insurance policies, and should a fire occur from such use, they could not recover from the insurance companies. I desire to call your attention to the clauses in your policies relating to any increase of hazard, without the consent of the underwriters, and to notify you that they will not consent to the display of fireworks within or from any building insured by the companies composing this association.

If the proper authorities should neglect to enforce the ordinances in regard to the use of fireworks, they might render the cities responsible for any damage resulting therefrom.

JOHN B. LIVINGSTON,
Fire-Marshal of Allegheny county.

P. S.—My assistants are requested to give their several districts their special attention on this occasion.

MR. REED'S REMOVAL.

What the People Think of it—A Strong Protest from Leading Citizens.

We publish below the protest entered by a number of our prominent citizens irrespective of party, and many Republicans, against the removal of Mr. Reed, from the office of United States District Attorney. The protestants clearly set forth the reasons for their objection to any change, that no charges had been preferred against Mr. Reed, that he was a gentleman above reproach, and that he had administered the duties of his office confessedly to the satisfaction of the law officers of the Government and the people as well. If it had been deemed necessary the signatures of many others, equally as prominent might have been procured. The characters of the signers of this paper gives it unusual weight, and makes it a protest that should have been heeded. It plainly represents the feeling of the people in regard to this whole business, and indicates the deep indignation in the community against the flagrant violation of every principle of fairness manifested by the Cameronian ring in dismissing an officer against whom no charges were presented, and who is acknowledged, in personal and professional character, to be unassailable. We give this protest, as a fresh chapter, which throws some additional light on Mr. Reed's removal, and shows the way in which the ring proposes to deal with those who happen to think that Cameronism is not the Republican party of Pennsylvania.

On this same subject our readers will find on our second page an interesting letter from ex-Senator Scott.

We, the undersigned, citizens of Allegheny county, irrespective of party, protest against the removal of David Reed, Esq., from the office of United States District Attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania, because there is no political or other necessity for the removal. Mr. Reed is an attorney of thirty years' practice, and of admitted ability. He has performed the duties of the office faithfully and well. He is a man against whose personal integrity there has never been a suspicion. The removal is a clear and palpable violation of the principles of civil service reform. Other reasons might be given against the removal and none to justify it.

To His Excellency, U. S. Grant, President of the United States:

Your friends of Washington, Penna., would most respectfully but earnestly protest against the removal of David Reed, Esq., the present U. S. Attorney for the Western District of Pennsylvania.

Mr. Reed is a native of our town and known to us and many of our people from infancy. His character is beyond reproach, and in the absence of any charges against him connected with his office his removal would be regarded as unjust to a faithful public officer.

Most respectfully,

A PROBABLE MURDER.

A Bar-room Quarrel Ends in a Fatal Shot—The Assailant in Custody.

About nine o'clock Saturday night a shooting affray that will doubtless prove fatal, occurred on Third avenue, near Philo Hall. Thos. Edgar and an acquaintance of his, Samuel Gibbons were in Wilbert's saloon next door to Philo Hall, during the evening, playing "pigeon hole." After they had been playing some time Gibbons, who was intoxicated, declared that he had been robbed. Edgar wouldn't believe it at first, but after searching his (Gibbons') pockets, found that it was probably true. Some further conversation ensued, when the two went out in the street. While talking there some other parties with whom they were acquainted came up. Gibbons drew his revolver and threatened to shoot. Edgar remonstrated with him, but it only incensed him the more, and he said that if Edgar came near he would shoot him. To prevent trouble Edgar sprang at Gibbons to secure his revolver, and during the scuffle the weapon was discharged, the ball entering Edgar's groin and into his stomach.

Lieut. Hagar, of the Mayor's police, being attracted by the noise, arrested Gibbon and took him to the Central Station. Edgar was also taken to the same place, and Dr. Boland summoned. After dressing the wound he had the man conveyed to the Homeopathic Hospital, on Second avenue, where he now lies.

Edgar is a glass-blower, married, about thirty-five years old, and boarded at No. 119 Bingham street, South Side. He is well known and has many friends, but no relatives living in the city. Gibbon is about the same age, and boarded at No. 130 Third avenue. He is also a South Side glass-blower, and well known. He is not altogether of sound mind, being somewhat silly, or as it is popularly called "a little off." Neither of the men were known as disorderly persons, both in fact bearing fair reputations for peaceableness. In police circles it is not thought that the shooting was done with malice prepense; indeed the authorities strongly incline to the belief that it was accidental.

On inquiry at the hospital last night it was learned that the physicians entertain no hopes of the recovery of Edgar. It was thought at midnight that he couldn't live until morning. The wound is a fatal one, and if he survives at all it will be by a miracle.

Gibbon will not have a hearing until the result of Edgar's injuries is ascertained.
